The Number 17 bus route runs from Archway in North London to London Bridge in Central London.

Start your tour at King’s Cross St Pancras Station

King’s Cross St Pancras Station
- Euston Rd, NIC 4QP
- Bus stop

St Pancras Railway Station
- St Pancras Railway Station is famous for its Victorian Gothic architecture, originally designed by George Gilbert Scott. It’s now a stunning Grade I listed 5-star hotel – enjoy lunch in the Booking Office restaurant for a taste of Victorian splendour.
- Platform 9¾
  - If you’re a Harry Potter fan, don’t forget to stop at King’s Cross Station and find platform 9¾, the departing point for Hogwarts™ via the Hogwarts Express.

Grays Inn Road, Square and Chapel
- The Honourable Society of Gray’s Inn, is one of London’s four Inns of Court (professional associations for barristers and judges). Enjoy the gardens or ‘Walks’, which have existed since 1597.

Ye Olde Mitre
- 48 Doughty Street, WC1N 2LX
- Bus stop

Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese
- 145 Fleet St, EC4A 2BU
- Bus stop

Cittie of York Pub
- 22 High Holborn, WCIV 6BN
- Bus stop

Ye Olde Mitre
- You can walk from the Cittie of York Pub to Ye Olde Mitre in 6 minutes.

Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese
- 145 Fleet St, EC4A 2BU
- Bus stop

Duration of non-stop route: 43 minutes
London's Museums and Palaces route

Bus Route 17

Heritage and Pubs route

Monument to the Great Fire of London

Fish St Hill, EC3R 8AH

(bus stop)

Monument Station

The Monument commemorates the Great Fire of London (1666), which destroyed the greater part of the City. When first completed, it was used for experiments by the Royal Society.

- St Paul's Cathedral

(138x447)

St Paul's Cathedral, is one of London's most famous sites. There has been a church on this site since AD 604. The present late 17th century church was designed by Sir Christopher Wren.

- The Old Bailey

(176x1445)

The Central Criminal Court of England and Wales, is commonly known as the Old Bailey from the street on which it stands. Part of the present building stands on the site of the medieval Newgate gaol.

- Monument

(176x1469)

You can walk from Monument to the George Inn / Borough Market / London Bridge in 11 minutes.

- St Paul's Cathedral

(138x618)

St Paul's Cathedral, is one of London's most famous sites. There has been a church on this site since AD 604. The present late 17th century church was designed by Sir Christopher Wren.

- George Inn

(90x1469)

The George Inn (1677) is Grade I listed and the last remaining galleried inn in London. Explore the panelled rooms inside, but look out for the ghost!

- London Bridge

(109x354)

You can walk from George Inn to Borough Market or London Bridge in 3 minutes.

- Old Bailey

(181x397)

The Old Bailey, EC4M 7EH

(bus stop)

Ludgate Hill / Old Bailey

The Central Criminal Court of England and Wales, is commonly known as the Old Bailey from the street on which it stands. Part of the present building stands on the site of the medieval Newgate gaol.

- George Inn Yard

(138x434)

The George Inn Yard, 77 Borough High Street, SE1 1NH

(bus stop)

London Bridge

The George Inn (1677) is Grade I listed and the last remaining galleried inn in London. Explore the panelled rooms inside, but look out for the ghost!

- St Paul's Cathedral

(138x618)

St Paul's Cathedral, is one of London's most famous sites. There has been a church on this site since AD 604. The present late 17th century church was designed by Sir Christopher Wren.

- The Old Bailey

(176x1445)

The Central Criminal Court of England and Wales, is commonly known as the Old Bailey from the street on which it stands. Part of the present building stands on the site of the medieval Newgate gaol.

Our NEW Hopper Fare lets you take unlimited bus or tram journeys within one hour for £1.50.