The Number 22 bus route runs from Putney in West London to Oxford Circus in Central London.

Start your tour at Fulham Palace

Fulham Palace
Bishop’s Avenue, SW6 6EA
Bus stop
Putney Bridge Station / Gonville Street

Fulham Palace was the country home of the Bishop of London from the 11th century until 1973. Today it houses a museum and a lovely café looking out onto the lovely gardens.

Wellington Arch
Apsley Way, Hyde Park Corner, W1J 7JZ
Bus stop
Hyde Park Corner Station

Wellington Arch was built as a ceremonial entrance to Buckingham Palace, later becoming a victory arch proclaiming Wellington’s defeat of Napoleon. With an interesting exhibition and great views, it’s worth a visit.

Green Park
Bus stop
Green Park Station

Green Park is a peaceful triangle of mature trees and grasslands featuring a range of memorials, fountains and statues. It offers a quiet retreat from city life, right next to Buckingham Palace.

Get off the bus here to walk to the remaining locations

Duration of non-stop route: 53 minutes

Fulham Palace
Bus route 22 runs from Putney Bridge Street to Oxford Street.

The King’s Road is home to many of London’s fine art and antiques dealers. You may wish to stop and browse or just enjoy the view from the bus window.

New King’s Road antique shops and art galleries

Furniture and Arts Building
533 King’s Rd, SW10 0TZ
Bus stop
World’s End Health Centre

Stop by for a visit and see the rarest of antiques, objects and furniture to cutting edge contemporary art and design.

Lots Road Auctions
71 Lots Rd, SW10 0RN
Bus stop
World’s End Health Centre

There have been Sunday auctions of contemporary and antique furniture, paintings and decorative items at Lots Road Auctions every Sunday since 1979.

Route continues on page 2
London’s Museums and Palaces route

Bus route 9

Antiques and Curios route

Bus route 22

Old Bond Street (on the right hand side off Piccadilly)

See some of London’s finest traditional shops including Truefitt & Hill, a historic gentleman’s barber, and James J Fox, one of the world’s oldest tobacco shops, visited by Winston Churchill and Napoleon III.

The Ritz

St James Street (on the right hand side off Piccadilly)

Explore a world of luxury goods, art and antiques along Old Bond Street, Abermarle and Dover Street including The Royal and Burlington Arcades.

St James’s Church, 197 Piccadilly, W1J 9LL

The market (Monday to Saturday) sells food, gifts and treasures from around the world. It is held in the courtyard of St James’s Church, designed by Sir Christopher Wren.

Piccadilly arts, craft and food market

St James’s Church, 197 Piccadilly, W1J 9LL

Our NEW Hopper fare lets you take unlimited bus or tram journeys within one hour for £1.50

The Ritz

150 Piccadilly, W1J 9BR

The Ritz is one of the world’s most prestigious, 5-star hotels. Grade II listed, in 2002, it became the first hotel to receive a Royal warrant from HRH the Prince of Wales for its services.

The Ritz Hotel Old Bond Street

St James Street (Truefitt & Hill)

See some of London’s finest traditional shops including Truefitt & Hill, a historic gentleman’s barber, and James J Fox, one of the world’s oldest tobacco shops, visited by Winston Churchill and Napoleon III.

Royal Academy of Arts

Burlington House, Piccadilly, W1J 0BD

The ‘RA’ is home to a diverse range of world-class art exhibitions including the famous annual Summer Exhibition, which has been running every year since 1769.

Piccadilly Circus

Plan a journey

Underground station

Bus stop name

Visitor Centre