19 Revocation or Suspension of Cab Licences

(1) A cab licence shall be liable to revocation or suspension by [Transport for London] on any of the following grounds:--

- (a) if the licence has been obtained by any misrepresentation, fraud or concealment of any material circumstances; or

- (b) if [Transport for London], by reason of any new circumstance arising or coming to [its] knowledge after the grant of a licence, or by reason of the condition of the cab, is satisfied that a licence in respect of the cab in question could not in pursuance of this Order properly be granted to the licensee if he were an applicant for a new licence; or

(4) The award to be paid to the cab-driver under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be such reasonable sum as may be awarded by [Transport for London], having regard to all the circumstances, including the value of the property: provided that the award shall not be less than [5p] or exceed a sum calculated in accordance with the scale laid down in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph.

(5) The value of any property for the purposes of this paragraph shall, in the case of property sold by [Transport for London], be the sum for which it is sold, and in any other case shall be its value as estimated by [Transport for London], having due regard to the value placed upon it by the claimant: provided that a claimant may, if he so desires, cause the property to be submitted for valuation to a valuer to be chosen by [Transport for London] and in any such case the fee payable by the claimant shall be determined upon the basis of the value put upon the property by such valuer, and the cost of such valuation shall be paid to [Transport for London] by the claimant.

(6) If the property is forwarded to the claimant by post or other means, the cost of postage or other means of conveyance and any other expenses so incurred shall be paid to [Transport for London] by the claimant.

(7) In the case of any unclaimed property contained in any package, bag or other receptacle, [Transport for London] may cause the property to be opened and the contents examined if [it] deems it necessary to do so for the purpose either

- (a) of identifying and tracing the owner of the property, or
- (b) of ascertaining the nature of its contents with a view to securing its safe custody or ascertaining whether the property is of a perishable nature.

In the case of any property which is claimed by any person [Transport for London] may, if the claim of that person to be entitled to the property cannot otherwise be established to the satisfaction of [Transport for London], require the claimant to open the property and to submit the contents to examination for the purpose of establishing his claim to ownership.

[SCHEDULE E

FIXED FARE ARRANGEMENTS

Preliminary and interpretation

1.—(1) In the circumstances specified in this Schedule, the driver of a motor cab must charge a fixed fare for carrying one or more passengers to a single destination.

(2) In this Schedule—

“Applicable Fare Zone” means, in respect of any proposed journey by motor cab under the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule, the Fare Zone within which the passenger’s specified destination lies;

“Applicable Fixed Fare” means the fare payable in respect of any proposed journey by motor cab under the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule, being the fare specified in column 3 of the table in Annex 2 to this Schedule that corresponds with the Applicable Fare Zone for that journey;

“Designated Rank” means a taxi rank referred to in the first column of the table in Annex 1 to this Schedule;

“Fare Zone” means any one of the fare zones referred to in the first column of the table in Annex 2 to this Schedule;

“Fare Zone Map” means a plan of Greater London showing the Fare Zones as may from time to time be publicised by TfL as being the Fare Zone Map for the purposes of this Schedule;

“Operative Date” means a date publicised by TfL as being a date on which fixed fare arrangements shall commence at a Designated Rank for the purposes of this Schedule;

“Operative Period” means a period which starts on an Operative Date and ends on such later date as may be publicised by TfL; and “TfL” means Transport for London.

- (3) The distances referred to in the second column of the table in Annex 2 to this Schedule are approximate.

Application

2.—(1) During an Operative Period, the provisions of this Schedule shall apply to motor cabs standing for hire or hired at a Designated Rank.

(2) During the hours of operation identified in the second column of the table in Annex 1 to this Schedule, any motor cab standing for hire at a Designated Rank must be hired for the carriage of passengers in accordance with the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule.

Fixed fare arrangements

3. Where the driver of a motor cab has opted to carry a passenger in accordance with the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule, the fare payable shall be the Applicable Fixed Fare for the proposed journey.

Seeking to hire a motor cab under fixed fare arrangements

4.—(1) A person may only seek to hire a motor cab under a fixed fare arrangement in circumstances where:

- (a) that person's journey will commence at a Designated Rank during the hours of operation identified in the second column of the table in Annex 1 to this Schedule;
- (b) that person is travelling to a single destination without any intermediate stops; and
- (c) that destination is readily identifiable and lies within a Fare Zone.

Determination and payment of the Applicable Fixed Fare

5.—(1) The Applicable Fixed Fare in respect of any journey must be determined, in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, before the commencement of the journey from the Designated Rank.

(2) The Applicable Fixed Fare will be determined, having regard to a person's stated destination and, where necessary, after consulting the Fare Zone Map in order to determine the Applicable Fare Zone.

(3) If, after being informed of the Applicable Fixed Fare, a person decides to proceed to be carried as a passenger, the Applicable Fixed Fare must be paid in full before the commencement of the journey and once the journey has commenced, no refund of the Applicable Fixed Fare, in full or in part, will be payable under any circumstances.

(4) If, after being informed of the Applicable Fixed Fare, a person decides not to be carried as a passenger under the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule, no fare or other charge shall be payable by that person.

Operation of the Taximeter

6.—(1) When a motor cab is hired under the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule, the driver of the motor cab shall not start the taximeter during the course of the passenger's journey except under the circumstances specified in paragraph 6 (2) below.

(2) In the event that a passenger requests the driver of a motor cab, after the passenger's journey has commenced, to carry the passenger or, in the case of more than one passenger, at least one of them, to a different destination to that specified before the commencement of the journey, then the driver of the motor cab may agree to carry a passenger to the different destination and in doing so, may start the taximeter as soon as,

- (a) in the case of an additional destination, the original destination has been reached; or
- (b) in the case of an alternative destination, the driver of the motor cab and the passenger agree that the taximeter should be started and, in each case, no sooner and the driver of the motor cab shall stop the taximeter no later than when the hiring is terminated or at such earlier time as the driver thinks fit.

(3) Nothing in paragraph 6(2) above shall oblige the driver of a motor cab to carry the passenger or passengers beyond the original destination specified before the commencement of the journey.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 40A(2) of the Order, in any case where the driver of a motor cab starts the taximeter during the course of a journey which commenced on a fixed fare basis in accordance with paragraph 6(2) above, the fare payable for the remainder of the passenger's journey will be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 40 of the Order and any fare payable shall be paid by the passenger to the driver of the motor cab at the termination of the passenger's journey and such fare shall be payable in addition to the Applicable Fixed Fare paid before the journey commenced.

Multiple Passengers

7. Nothing in this Schedule shall prohibit the driver of a motor cab from carrying more than one passenger to a single destination in accordance with the fixed fare arrangements specified in this Schedule but the driver of a motor cab may not charge more than once for the same journey, and any reference within this Schedule to a passenger shall be construed as a reference to 'passengers' where the circumstances so require.
