6 Obligatory hirings

The driver of a taxi available for hire under this Schemes who —

- (a) is not waiting with a person seeking a shared service for another person to offer to share the taxi; and
- (b) would, apart from the Licensed Taxis (Hiring at Separate Fares) (London) Order 1986, be required to accept the hiring, shall not without reasonable excuse refuse a hiring to three or more persons seeking a shared service to the same destination; but he may, with the agreement of those persons, wait for a reasonable period for further passengers to share the hiring.

7 Arrangements for a shared service

- (1) If a person seeks to hire for a shared service a taxi available for hire under this Scheme and the driver is unable to find other persons to share the hiring within a reasonable time, then no fare or other charge shall be payable and the driver shall be free to seek an alternative hiring provided that the driver and the first mentioned person may continue to wait for other persons to offer to share the taxi for so long as they both agree to do so.
- (2) Before the commencement of any journey from the authorised place by a taxi for the purpose of a shared service, any person may (notwithstanding any earlier agreement) decide not to be carried as a passenger and no fare or other charge shall be payable by that person.

8 Cessation of availability

If —

- (a) a person at any time seeks to hire for an exclusive service a taxi available for hire under this Scheme;
- (b) the driver is not waiting with a person seeking a shared service for another person to offer to share the taxi; and
- (c) the driver either—
 - (i) would, apart from the Licensed Taxis (Hiring at Separate Fares) (London) Order 1986, be required to accept the hiring; or
 - (ii) accepts the hiring although not required to do so, then that taxi shall thereupon cease to be available for hire under this Scheme until the expiry of that hiring.

9 Luggage

The driver shall not refuse to carry in his taxi the luggage of a passenger if the luggage can be accommodated safely within the luggage compartment of the taxi with the luggage of other passengers already accepted by him.

10 Route to be followed

The driver shall determine the route taken by the taxi and the order in which passengers are set down, but he shall not unreasonably prolong the journey of any passenger.
