

HS2 Euston Road lane closures

Traffic Impact: 20 February to mid-April 2023

-  Works Area
-  Roads will be busier than usual
-  Central London Congestion Charge boundary

From 20 February to mid-April 2023 the A501 Euston Road will be reduced to two lanes in each direction from North Gower Street to Eversholt Street whilst HS2 carry out enabling works ahead of building the new station. From late March all lanes will reopen westbound but the eastbound restriction will remain in place until summer 2023.
